Dear Members and Spectators,

On behalf of myself and our society, it's a great pleasure to welcome you all here today and thank you for supporting our National Charolais Calf Show once again. Todays show promises to be a superb event.

And a very special welcome to our two judges, Matthew Mille and Alan Drysdale. We wish you a good day's judging and hope you enjoy the task.

The stock you see here today are the best from all over Ireland. Our exhibitors have come from all over the country, from Dublin to Galway and Donegal to Cork and we thank them all for their support. Enormous work goes into the preparation and presentation of the animals and I wish them all the very best today.

I would also like to thank our Show sponsor, Greenvale Animal Feeds, who have been a valued sponsor of the Charolais Society over the past number of years.

In the interests of all spectators and competitors, I ask that you please abide by the steward's requests at all times, it is vital to the smooth and safe running of the show.

Cead Mile Failte to everyone here today and I hope that you have an interesting and enjoyable day.
